About the Talent Development Programme

The British Chamber of Commerce Shanghai's Talent Development Programme is an integrated training and networking series that provides the opportunity for participants to achieve their maximum potential by closing the employability skills gap, and through building relationships with like-minded cohorts. This is a two-month programme offering interactive workshops that are led by highly reputable company representatives across a range of different industries to share their enriching knowledge and extensive experience.

The 2021 Programme hosted 21 attendees from Brandigo, CEIBS, Dulwich College Shanghai, Hays, IvyU Limited, Jaguar Land Rover, Mazars Consulting Co., Ltd, NielsenIQ, Sodexo China, Unilever China, VITA Student.

43% of the attendees had overseas study experience - 5 in the UK, 2 in the US, 1 in France and 1 in the Netherlands.

Attendees' Feedback

High-Frequency Keywords: useful, practical, helpful, informative

Soundbite: I see this programme giving me a deeper understanding of how senior professionals representing China and UK business interests are adapting to, and embracing, the unknown.
